Citizens for Educational Excellence (CEE), a non-profit and independent community-based organization, is a catalyst bringing people, information, and resources together to promote outstanding public education in Corpus Christi.

CEE's vision is for our diverse community to have great confidence in the public education system in Corpus Christi—a system where all children achieve high academic standards and are prepared to successfully enter the world of work and continue their education.

CEE joins similar community-based education organizations as part of a national association known as the Public Education Network.
